Brothers, we are growing. On May 17th, Candidate Quinn Haase was brought to see the light by which a Lodge of Entered Apprentice Masons work. Welcome, Brother Quinn!

Wages are due to Brother Chris Chase, JW, for his exemplary work leading our degree team through two rehearsals, and subsequently conferring this degree. Wages are also due to Brother Walter Lee, SW, who debuted for Brother Quinn his first delivery of the Lecture of the Entered Apprentice Degree. To speak plainly, Brother Lee knocked it out of the park. Those who have met Brother Lee are already familiar with his sincerity and verbal acuity. Just imagine those skills turned, with verve, towards the formative lessons offered to the Entered Apprentice. Our entire cast performed quite admirably. It is indeed heartening to once again learn that, regardless of any other pressures upon our Lodge in recent years, we perform our ritual well, accurately, and with clear intent. Of course, given that there is no perfection in this life, we continue to actively welcome our experienced Brothers to join us, and help us improve our Masonry, in all ways and all meanings of this phrase.

We will also be doing all this again, this month, on Wednesday, June 21st, at 7:00pm, for our second new candidate, Patrick Reilly. All Brothers are heartily encouraged to attend, and help bring our newest candidate to light.

When Are You A Mason?

By Wilbur D. Nesbit

When are you a Mason?
When you go to Lodge
If there is a meeting
That you cannot dodge?
When you wear your button?
When still up you climb?
The way to be a Mason
Is to be one all the time.

When are you a Mason?
When there's fun and feast,
Or when you can bolster
With a word at least
Some poor devil's spirits!
The real help you give.
The way to be a Mason
Is to be one as you live.

When are you a Mason?
When some gossip spreads
Of another brother,
Are you the one who heads
Off the hurtful babble,
And helps make things right?
The way to be a Mason
Is to be one day and night.

When are you a Mason?
Brother, you and I
Can make great the Order
As the days go by,
Through each word and action,
Through each song and smile:
The way to be a Mason
Is to be one all the while!

We are Two Brothers

By H. L. Haywood

Give me your hand

You are rich I am poor

Your wealth is your power, and by it you tread

A wide open path where for me is a door

That is locked and before it are worry and dread.

We are sundered, are we,

As two men can be

But we are two brothers in Freemasonry

So give me your hand.

Give me your hand

You are great I'm unknown

You travel with a permanent fame

I go on a way unlauded, alone,

With hardly a man to hear of my name:

We are sundered, are we,

As two men can be

But we are two brothers in Freemasonry

So give me your hand.

Give me your hand

You are old I am young

The years in your heart their wisdom have sown

But knowledge speaks not by my faltering tongue,

And small in the wisdom I claim as my own:

We are sundered, are we,

As two men can be

But we are two brothers in Freemasonry

So give me your hand.
